

Name-Swati Gorakhanath Shinde

Subject -English

Qualification-BA.Ded.

Early English language learning for pre primary children is a crucial for cognitive development, global communication and future opportunity.

Learning a language like English keeps the brain active and healthy improving ,memory creativity and ability.

English is widely spoken language, making it a valuable tool I for communication and interaction on a gobles scale.

Mastery of English opens of award of information, increasing children's motivation and interest in research and exploration. Learning English can help children understand and appreciate different cultures and perspectives.